SCRIPTURE reflections

The readings this Sunday call us to reflect on our actions and the end times. They remind us of the importance of staying faithful and diligent.

- JUDGMENT DAY: Malachi speaks of a fierce day when the arrogant and wicked will be punished. This day will bring justice and healing for those who honor God.
- HARD WORK: In 2 Thessalonians, Paul emphasizes the value of hard work. He warns against idleness and encourages everyone to earn their keep.
- FUTURE TRIALS: Jesus predicts the destruction of the temple and describes future hardships. He speaks of wars, disasters, and persecution that followers will face.
- FAITHFULNESS IN PERSECUTION: Jesus promises to give wisdom to those who are persecuted for their faith. He assures them that they will be preserved if they endure these trials.
- ENDURANCE: Endurance is highlighted in the Gospel as necessary for salvation. Those who stand firm in their faith will be saved.

We are encouraged to stay steadfast and committed in both our work and our faith. Even in the face of challenges, we are reminded that God's justice and healing will ultimately triumph.

In this Thanksgiving month, we are grateful for the gift of life from conception to natural death & human dignity and pray for expectant parents, those with pregnancy difficulties & post abortion healing. These events respect life:

- 1)40/365 Days For Life, prayers,
- 2) Sidewalk Advocates Training (T B A) ,
- 3)Hawaii State Laws, prayers,
- 4) Walking With Moms In Need programs, prayers,
- 5)End to human trafficking, prayers
- 6)The elderly & end to assisted suicide, prayers.

Angel Tree Project

The ALTAR SERVERS, FOOD PANTRY & YOUNG ADULT MINISTRIES are bringing back the Angel Tree Project. Sign-up will be every weekend from November 1 to 23 at the church lanai.

Let's us spread hope and make this year's Christmas extra special for kids and kupuna who could use a little extra joy.

LECTORS AND COMMENTATORS are volunteers who proclaim God's Word during Catholic Mass. A LECTOR reads the scripture readings and the responsorial psalm. A COMMENTATOR handles the introductory announcements, welcomes the congregation, reads the Prayers of the Faithful, and provides concluding remarks. Both roles require preparation, training, and a commitment to living out their faith.

Lector

Primary Role: Proclaims the readings from Sacred Scripture, except for the Gospel, which is read by a deacon or priest.

Other Duties: Can also be asked to recite the Responsorial Psalm and the Prayers of the Faithful in the absence of the psalmist or deacon.

Preparation: Should be well-versed in the readings, which may include practicing, studying the background, and understanding pronunciation guides.

Commentator

Primary Role: Manages the flow of the Mass by making announcements and introductions.

Other Duties: Welcome attendees, read the mass intentions, and lead the Prayers of the Faithful if no deacon is present.

Preparation: Needs to be organized and clear in their delivery of information to the congregation.

Requirements and Training

Faith and Practice: Lectors and commentators are expected to be practicing Catholics who live in accordance with the Church's teachings.

Training: Proper formation and training are required before one can serve in this ministry.

Commitment: This is a commitment to a particular Mass time and involves regular service.
