PRAYER FOR THE PROTECTION OF CHILDREN

Dear Lord, thank you for the gift of my children, each one is a gift from You to me. I know that they are Your children whom You have entrusted into my care.

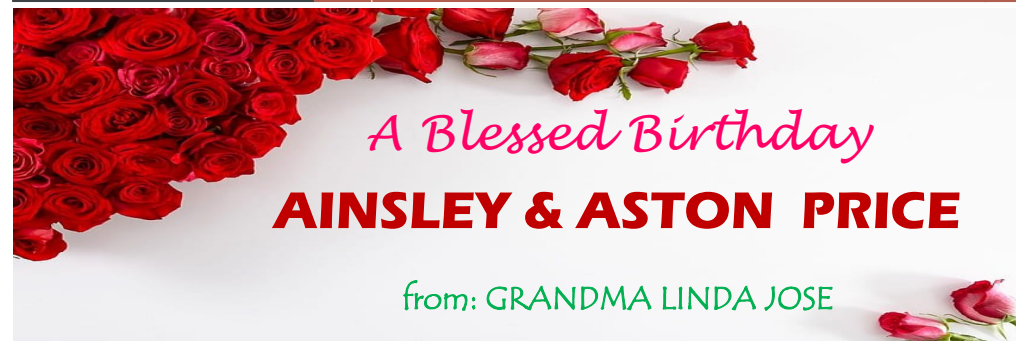

Please help me to teach them well, set a good example, and watch out for them as best as I humanly can. I ask You to guide them, protect them, watch over them, and walk beside them in their lives. May You keep them safe from harm-both physical and spiritual.

May they grow in faith and love for You and know Your strength inside of themselves. May they turn back to You when they have strayed from You and have an even stronger faith, hope, and trust in You.

Thank You for guiding and helping them plan their futures, ones filled with hope and love for You. Thank You for being with them in their struggles, helping, loving, and guiding them.

May You help them to keep their belief in You strong and renew a strong belief in You when they turn back to You after times of doubt. May they grow to know, love, serve, and believe more in You throughout their lives.

Thank You, Lord, for the gift of my children.
May we all be together in Heaven when our earthly lives are complete. Amen.

A Blessed Birthday AINSLEY & ASTON PRICE

from: GRANDMA LINDA JOSE

The readings for the 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time show the importance of faith, hospitality, and commitment to Jesus. They teach that following Christ means putting Him first and trusting in His promises.

- Putting Jesus First: Jesus calls His followers to love Him more than their own families. This means faith should guide all choices and actions.
- Hospitality and Generosity: The woman in Shunem welcomed Elisha into her home, and he promised her a son. This shows that kindness and generosity bring blessings.
- Baptism and New Life: Paul explains that through baptism, Christians die to sin and rise to a new life. This means they should live for God and avoid sin.
- Sacrifice and Reward: Jesus teaches that following Him comes with sacrifices. But even small acts of kindness in His name will not go unnoticed.
- Trusting in God’s Promises: The woman in Shunem did not expect to have a child, but God made it happen. This shows that God fulfills promises in unexpected ways.
- Serving Others: Jesus says that welcoming His messengers is like welcoming Him. Helping others, even in small ways, is part of Christian life.

The readings remind Christians to trust in God and follow Jesus completely. They show that faith requires both commitment and love in action.

PPAC MEETING
SUNDAY MASS (FATHER'S DAY CELEBRATION)

The SOLEMNITY OF SAINTS PETER AND PAUL is a major feast day in the Christian liturgical calendar observed on June 29. It honors the martyrdom of the two foundational apostles of the Church in Rome, Saint Peter and Saint Paul, celebrating their combined efforts to spread the Gospel. The celebration recognizes the unique roles both men played in the early Christian church:

Saint Peter: The chief of the Apostles and the "rock" upon which Jesus built the Church. He ministered primarily to the Jewish people and holds the keys to the kingdom of heaven.

Saint Paul: The Apostle to the Gentiles. He was a charismatic scholar who spread Christianity throughout the Roman Empire.

Key Details & Traditions

Date: The solemnity is fixed on June 29, marking the anniversary of their deaths or the relocation of their relics.

Martyrdom: Both were martyred in Rome under the Emperor Nero between 64 and 67 AD. Tradition holds that Peter was crucified upside down, and Paul was beheaded.

Papal Tradition: At the Vatican, the Pope celebrates a Solemn Mass and confers the pallium (a liturgical vestment) on newly appointed metropolitan archbishops.

Significance: Despite having differing ministries and past public disagreements, their joint feast day represents the unity of the Church across different backgrounds.
