The Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading
Second Reading
Gospel
This Weekend's Readings 1 Sm 3:3b-10, 19
1 Cor 6:13c-15a, 17-20
Jn 1:35-42

The readings for this Sunday invite us to hear God calling and to respond. In the first reading, God calls to Samuel and he replies. The psalm speaks of waiting for the Lord and answering. The Gospel tells of the call of the first apostles.

- Discipleship and Following: The theme of discipleship and following Jesus is evident as John the Baptist's disciples choose to follow Jesus after his testimony. This highlights the transformative power of encountering Jesus.
- Messiah and Recognition: The recognition of Jesus as the Messiah is a central theme as Andrew proclaims, "We have found the Messiah." This emphasizes the pivotal moment when individuals recognize Jesus' divine identity.
- Invitation and Relationship: Jesus' invitation to "come and see" underscores the theme of forming a personal relationship. This highlights the importance of encountering Jesus firsthand and developing a personal connection.
- Name Change and Identity: The theme of name change and identity emerges as Jesus renames Simon to Cephas (Peter), which means "rock." This symbolizes Peter's future role and underscores the transformative impact of encountering Jesus.
- Personal Testimony: Andrew's excited testimony to his brother Simon introduces the theme of personal testimony. This highlights the significance of sharing one's personal experiences with Jesus to invite others into a relationship with Him.
- Response to Jesus' Call: Simon's immediate response to Jesus' call showcases the theme of obedience. His willingness to leave his nets and follow Jesus reflects the radical nature of responding to Jesus' call.

O God, who brought the Abbot Saint Anthony
 to serve you through a wondrous way of life in the desert, grant, through his intercession,
 that, denying ourselves,
 we may always love you above all things.
 Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
 who lives and reigns with you in the
 unity of the Holy Spirit,
 God, for ever and ever
 Amen.

Bishop Larry kindly reminds us that in order to safeguard the sacredness of the Holy Eucharist, Bishop has forbidden that the Eucharist be given to anyone presenting a pyx in the Communion line. Only those who are authorized by the parish priest to take Holy Communion to the sick may receive the Eucharist from the priest after the Communion of the faithful and never during the communion procession.

There will be a meeting of the Heads of Ministry and Liturgy on Saturday, January 20, 2024 at 6:30pm in the church

Faith Formation

Are you someone or do you know someone who has expressed an interest in becoming Catholic?

Has a child over the age of seven who has not been baptized? Was baptized Catholic as a child, but has not celebrated the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist?

We offer an opportunity to come together in a small group to learn more about our faith.

Sessions focus on the teachings and experience of Church and prepare individuals to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist during the Easter season.

There are separate sessions for children or youth. You are welcome to participate in the process with your questions, your insights and your faith story in a warm accepting setting.
